REPUBLICAN WOMEN TOLD OF DUTIES AT END OF THE WAR

'To Bind Up Wounds of Those Whose Way of Thinking is Shattered'

ORRIN BOYLE SPEAKS

Committeewomen Are Guests
At County Luncheon;
Mock Election

QUAKERTOWN, Mar. 14—"It will be the responsibility of the women, after this world crisis, to bind up the wounds of those whose way of thinking has been shattered."

Thus spoke Orrin G. Boyle, an Allentown attorney-at-law, when he addressed members of the Bucks County Council of Republican Women, in the Moose home, East Broad street, here, yesterday afternoon. The subject of Mr. Boyle was "The Responsibility of Women after this World Crisis." He informed the 100 gathered for the luncheon session that the present holocaust is nothing more than a war of ideas against ideology.

To the members of the council Mr. Boyle also said: "This is especially the job of women like you Republican women. You will accept a duty like this because first of all you believe in good Americanism, and you are also good Republicans."

Mr. Boyle was introduced by the president of the council, Mrs. Howard Kooker, Jr., of this borough.

A mock election was a feature of the day, when an election booth demonstration in proper procedure for voting occurred. The participants included: Judge of elections, Mrs. David L. Weaver; minority inspector, Mrs. Jacob Shoemaker; majority inspector, Mrs. Ralph S. Butler; clerks, Mrs. Peter Roming and Mrs. Clarence Pease; watcher, Mrs. Lewis Pfaff; constable, Mrs. Oscar Martin, Doylestown; voters, Mrs. Elmer Day, Perkasie; Mrs. Elmer Althouse, Sellersville; and Mrs. Leo Lynn, Bristol R. D.

Committee women throughout the county had been invited as guests on this occasion, and 30 of this group were in attendance.

Throughout the luncheon and during the meeting Mrs. Alfred Johnson favored with selections on the harp.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Kooker, who called upon the proper officers to lead in the flag salute, and in the singing of "America."

Serving as hostesses on this occasion were Mrs. Burton Knerr, and Mrs. Daniel Erdman, Quakertown; Mrs. Wilson Yeakel, Perkasie; Mrs. Elmer E. Althouse, Sellersville. Reservations were in charge of Mrs. George Krauss.

EXCHANGE CLUB PAYS HONOR TO ST. PATRICK

Dr. George T. Fox Sponsors
Fine Program in Honor of Patron Saint

MANY GUESTS ATTEND

Members of the Exchange Club, their wives, and a group of invited guests thoroughly enjoyed the annual St. Patrick's Day party which was given last night in the Elks' Home. Dr. George T. Fox, who for a number of years has sponsored these affairs for the Exchange Club, presided over a program of mirth, music, dancing and frivolity.

The program last night was given a new turn when instead of the usual discourse on the Patron Saint of Ireland the program was devoted chiefly to numbers given by a group of professional entertainers.

At the conclusion of the dinner meeting the Exchange Club members and their guests assembled in the social session room of the Elks' Home. There were words of greeting by Dr. Fox, who thanked his many friends for being present, the Exchange Club for thus honoring him as sponsor of the affair and the Elks Home for so graciously permitting the use of the building.

Dr. Fox gave briefly some facts about St. Patrick, stating that "his birthplace is uncertain, but the best authorities believe he was born near Dumbarton in Alban or Scotland. His parents were christians and of a respectable station in life. His father, Calpurn, was a magistrate in the Roman service. His mother a close relative of St. Martin of Tours."

"At the age of 16 St. Patrick was taken captive and brought to Ireland about the year 403. There he spent six years, a Christian alone among pagans. At the end of that time he escaped and made his way back to his home and family, but he had learned to love the people of Ireland and resolved to return and devote his life to their conversion. He went to France, where he studied for the priesthood, was consecrated Bishop and appointed Apostle to Ireland in the year 431."

Other outstanding facts in the life of St. Patrick were recited by Dr. Fox, who continued: "No nation in the world was converted to Christianity in so short a time as the Irish; and no missionary, after the age of the apostles, preached the Gospel with more success than St. Patrick. He adopted from the very beginning a bold and courageous plan of preaching the Gospel. He always made straight for the palaces and other great houses and began by attempting to convert the kings and chiefs. Within 50 years the whole of Ireland was Christian and it was accomplished without the shedding of a single drop of blood."

Group singing was under the leadership of Andrew MacArthur, who also favored with a solo; and a vocal number was given by Dr. Fox.

A four-piece orchestra and four girl dancers gave interpretative numbers, which were outstanding for exhibitions of grace, skill and rhythm. Acrobatic dances elected much applause as did a finale entitled "Poet and Peasant," with a three-piece orchestra accompanying the dancer.

The dancers were tops in the art of Terpsichore, and their numbers were brilliantly given. Included were military, acrobatic, Spanish and other numbers. Irish selections were included in the wide range of numbers which the orchestra gave in fine style. Particularly outstanding was the solo work of the clarinetist.

Fred M. Bickhardt favored as a concluding feature, by directing the group singing of selections which were popular one or two generations ago.

Glasgow Suffers Heavy Raid

London, Mar. 14—Glasgow on the River Clyde, main production center for the battleships of Britain's navy, counted heavy casualties today in the wake of a terrific German air raid.

At the same time, the Air Ministry reported outstanding success in a new Royal Air Force attack on Hamburg, Germany's greatest seaport, and claimed a "bag" of at least twenty Nazi aircraft by means of new and secret devices in night operations over England.

The attack on Glasgow and other areas in Scotland, coincident with new raids on the Merseyside in England, was one of the heaviest the Germans have launched since the high point of blitz operations last Fall.

But the British attack on Hamburg also termed the most devastating yet made by the RAF. It is now a case of blow for blow and bomb for bomb.

Announce New Type Super-Bomber

New York, Mar. 14—Creation of a new super dive bomber, capable of traveling 100 miles an hour faster than any other plane of its type in the world, was announced today by Burdette S. Wright, vice president of the Curtis Wright Corp.

The plane, designed for the U. S. Navy, is able to carry twice as many heavy bombs as any existing dive bomber, fly twice as far as any present models and remain in flight four and a half hours longer, Wright declared.

Designed to operate from aircraft carriers on extended scouting and bombing missions, the plane was described by Wright as "the most powerful dive bomber ever built in America or abroad."

The plane is designed for rapid mass production. A large scale turnout of these dive bombers, Wright said, will begin as soon as the new plane factory, now being erected at Port Columbus, O., is completed.

Many Killed in Explosion

MORRISVILLE FIREMEN MUST REDUCE SPEED

Capitol View Company Given
15 Days To Put Governors
On Apparatus

ONE CO. HAS COMPLIED

MORRISVILLE, Mar. 14—The Union Fire Company has been given 15 days in which to comply with a previous order of Borough Council to put governors on all its apparatus in accordance with State speed law.

At the session, Capitol View reported it had all its trucks governed as ordered at council's last meeting, but Union Fire made no report. If the company fails to comply with the borough fathers' orders within the 15-day limit, the body will remove the Union apparatus from service until the governors are installed.

Council rejected a State Highway Department plan for detouring of traffic when the West Bridge street canal bridge work and Bridge street concreting, from the river to Morris avenue, is started. The highway wants traffic, according to a plan submitted, turn down North Pennsylvania avenue from the old highway, through Union street, to North Delmorr avenue to Bridge street. Morrisville will insist that the detour continue along Trenton avenue, which is the old highway, and turn down North Delmorr avenue to East Bridge street, keeping through traffic completely off Pennsylvania and Union.

Borough Engineer Harry H. Lee, Jr., was authorized to contact the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, ordering them to have the depression in the sidewalk area where the unused spur track crosses Delmorr avenue, either raised or concreted over to eliminate the settling of rain there following a storm.

The Shade Tree Commission and council both agreed that something should be done in regard to the trees on Trenton avenue. The American Telephone and Telegraph Company is continually cutting off the trees to make room for its wires which pass through that section. Council ordered the A. T. and T. to combine its wires in cable form, so that it will eliminate the ruining of the trees there.

Twenty-five members attended the meeting, which was featured by a book review of "Migrant Life" by Miss Irma Larzelere. During the afternoon the members took up a general discussion of the subject, "Family Fellowship."

A number of new books have been added to the shelves of the Chalfont Community Library.

TWO BILLS INTRODUCED BY THOS. B. STOCKHAM

One Measure Provides for Exemption of Real Estate Brokers From Mercantile Tax

TO AMEND POLICE LAW

HARRISBURG, Mar. 14—Representative Thomas B. Stockham of Bucks County, introduced two bills this week. The first seeks to exempt real estate brokers from the mercantile license laws, on the grounds that such a business is the rendering of a service, rather than dealing in a commodity.

The second bill would amend the law fixing the pensions of Camden-Philadelphia bridge police to include in the pension system the police of the Joint Free Bridge Commission which operates the bridge at Easton.

Representative Stockham pointed out that there will be no cost to the State under this legislation since the act provides that pension funds shall be derived from the bridge income.

The Legislative tempo increased considerably this week, particularly in the Senate where an unusually large number of committee meetings were scheduled.

In the House, Representative Edwin Winner, of Hatboro, is still in charge of the Administrative Tax bills which are in the hands of the Ways and Means Committee.

Representative Charles H. Brunner, Jr., of the Second District, is recuperating from an operation performed at the Montgomery Hospital, Norristown, on Monday. It is expected that Mr. Brunner will return to his home at the end of this week.

Prize-Winning Question

(By "The Stroller")

A prize-winning question in a kitchen quiz was presented to a radio program committee this week by Mrs. Arthur F. Gibson, Eddington. By virtue of submitting the question, Mrs. Gibson, it was announced during the program yesterday morning, will receive as a gift a carton containing 12 items of canned goods.

Her question was: "In ironing fine linen or lawn, what method should be used to preserve the natural texture of the material?"

The answer which Mrs. Gibson supplied with the question, which method she follows in laundering altar linens, etc., for Christ Episcopal Church, Eddington, where her husband is rector, follows: "Rinse in ice water, roll in a towel and iron at once."

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

By FRANK R. KENT
"Distributed by McNaught Syndicate, Inc."

A Perilous Attitude

Washington, March 13. ONE question which seems fairly important is whether the patriotic emotion engendered by our immense defense effort and the fact that we are now in the war on the side of England is going to be so overwhelming as to blot out all other issues and considerations.

IT may easily be that in concentrating upon expending and producing we will neglect vital matters of a domestic nature which will weaken us as a nation and diminish our effectiveness in the struggle. Such neglect would be unfortunate and indefensible. Nevertheless, it seems likely to occur.

These include not only books for adults, but three of interest to juveniles.

Donald V. Hock, an attorney from Allentown, will address those who assemble for the buffet supper and meeting of Chalfont Community Club, in the Chalfont Methodist Church, on March 26th.

Mr. Hock will speak on "Americanization."

When fire destroyed a combination brooder house and chicken house at the property of E. Clair Richman, near Kellers Church, on Tuesday, 1400 four-weeks-old chicks were lost.

The fire, for a time, threatened a nearby barn. The blaze was believed to have been caused by an overheated brooder stove. The structure was 30x70 feet.

Three permits, two of which call for the construction of garages estimated to cost $725, and one for the erection of a boat sign, have been issued by Louis Moerman, Jr., clerk of Doylestown Borough Council.

Mrs. Ethel Hesser, New York City, was granted a permit to construct a three-car frame garage on Lafayette street at a cost of $500.

Victor S. Randa, Doylestown, R. D. No. 2, was granted a permit to build a two-car frame garage at 127 Cottage street at a cost of $225.

The Penn Neon Sign Company was granted permission to erect a metal sign in the shape of a boot, for Robert D. Figuera, of the Strand Shoe Repair, 10 South Main street.

Plumbing permits have been issued to four County Seat and one Chalfont plumber.

COLLECTING BUTTONS IS MRS. HOPKINS' HOBBY

Torresdale Woman Exhibits
Thousands of Buttons at Farmers' Meeting

NO TWO ARE ALIKE

TORRESDALE, Mar. 14—When the question, "Button, button, who has the button?" is asked in this community, there could hardly be any answer different from this: "Mrs. Daniel J. Hopkins."

Mrs. Hopkins has them by the thousands. And what is more they are all in orderly fashion, the more easily to be examined and admired, for this collection is the most recent hobby of a very busy woman, who when not occupied with her home-making in general, is painting in oils, fashioning handwork in wool, silk or linen—or possibly hunting more buttons.

At the annual meeting for farmers of Philadelphia and Bucks counties, held at the St. Francis Industrial School, Eddington, this week, Mrs. Hopkins arranged a display of more than 4100 buttons, with no two alike.

Forty card-board picnic plates, shellacked, each bore 100 buttons, neatly sewed on; and the plates were then hung on the wall in rows. On the back of each plate appears the name of the donor.

The strange fact about the collection is that it did not start until last Thanksgiving Day, when a daughter of Mrs. Hopkins, moving to a new home, asked her mother if she wanted any of the buttons she planned to dispose of. It was then that Mrs. Hopkins had her vision of a button collection. Since then she has searched her own supply of buttons, and those which relatives and friends have donated, but from the lot she takes only buttons which are different from any she already has. She then returns the container of buttons to the original owner.

Some of the buttons date back more than 100 years, and the designs of some are intriguing. They range from one-quarter inch in width to more than 3½ inches in diameter.

There are round buttons, square buttons, oval ones, and some are bullet shaped. Some are fashioned of bone, others of metal, glass, wood, plastics. They come in all shades of the rainbow, and some are variegated in color. A number are set with brilliants; while some are shaped like peacocks, sailboats, birds, flowers, hearts, anchors; and one ancient one presents the figure of a medieval knight.

Several states are represented in the collection likewise, the buttons being donated by residents of Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio, New Jersey, and as far away as California.

The Great Game of Politics

following his January insistence upon economy with action, Senator Byrd has shown that the President submitted a "trick budget" and that in the next fiscal year non-defense expenditures will be increased, not reduced.

DISTURBING as that is, it is not so disturbing as the fact that there exists in the Administration today no well-thought-out, planned taxation program which by any stretch of the imagination can be regarded as adequate. To implement the lease-lend bill, the President has asked for immediate appropriation of seven billions on top of the thirty-two billions already authorized for defense. And he must be given that sum, having embarked on the policy of all

Eight Balls of Fire

IF you like fireworks, and who doesn't, it's really too bad you can't see what goes on inside that sparkling big Buick FIREBALL eight that romps you so easily down the broad highway.

There you'd see eight busy cylinders, with pistons flashing up and down...

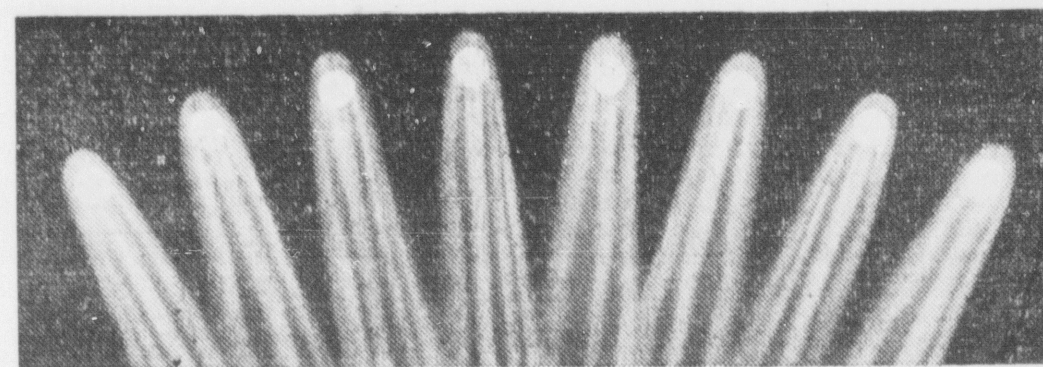

You'd see each fuel charge packed tight into a tiny bundle shaped like a flattened ball...

You'd see the spark leap, the flame spread, the piston thrust down with extra force as each furious fireball lets go its pent-up wallop.

You'd see all this happening as fast as thirty times a second in each of those eight cylinders—and we think you'd understand then just why there's such a special and exciting satisfaction in the way a Buick travels.

Gasoline gives up more of its power when it's packed as tightly as it is here.

and how they can travel!

That special, flattened-ball shape of the compressed fuel charge means smoother, better burning, full focus of the power on the piston head, where it counts.

So when you've got these eight balls of fire working busily under the bonnet, you really travel!

You travel farther on every gallon; you travel more pleasurably.

You travel—but, shucks! Why listen to talk when there's a Buick dealer nearby waiting to show you how you travel behind a FIREBALL?

Just about to pass the House. A relatively small amount is involved, but it is the example that counts. If the people and Congress do not soon grasp the national peril inherent in this Administration attitude, there will be no way to avert a ruinous smash.

come, we will have done a good job. So, if we require twenty-five per cent. of that income for governmental expense, all the rest of the people must contribute from fifteen to twenty per cent. of their individual incomes. This means more income taxes, sales taxes and pay-roll taxes." No one disputes statements such as these. Actually, in view of the seven-billion demand, the Taft statement is conservative. Yet what is the reaction of the New Deal politicians and the New Deal press?

THEIR reaction is against economy and against taxes—except for corporations and the rich. It is incredible that this sort of dangerous demagoguery should be practiced in an emergency such as this. It is shocking that under existing circumstances the President should indorse the bill to increase by one hundred per cent. the appropriation of the Office of Government Reports, an entirely non-essential agency conducted by one of his secretaries, Mr. Mellet, and generally regarded as primarily designed for propaganda purposes. Backed by the White House, it is flation the disaster of which cannot be exaggerated.

IF the President will not lead in this fight, then Congress must. It will be criminal neglect not to make it. It is a terrible thing to let the people rush toward a catastrophic credit collapse because their leaders shrink from dealing with unpleasant realities. In a statement on the subject, made before the seven-billion demand, Senator Taft said: "We might as well face the fact that these taxes must fall on every man, woman and child. The Government will require twenty-five per cent. of the national income to pay its expenses. It is clearly impossible to obtain anything like that amount from the wealthy or through corporation taxes. If we confiscated all incomes in excess of $10,000, we would get only about three and one half billions, of which we already get forty per cent. under existing laws. And we would only get that for about a year."

CONTINUING, Mr. Taft said: "If we can get from the wealthy five to ten per cent. of the national in-aid to the British, the word of the President must be taken as to the amount needed. For Congress now to cut down the President's estimate would be notice to the world that we are counting the cost, unwilling to go the limit.

THE psychological effect of that would be bad, but certainly it will be conceded that the size of the appropriation demanded renders the questions of economy and taxation much more acute. These questions soon will be debated in Congress. That will be the next big fight. Apparently, forceful leadership in either direction is not to be expected from Mr. Roosevelt, who has his mind on other things. Though he orally favors both, he shrinks alike from reducing expenses and increasing taxes. On these counts, since 1933 Congress has shown more initiative and a greater willingness than he. Retrenchment and repayment are words which Mr. Roosevelt uses infrequently and forgets immediately after using. Yet, unless somebody in our Government makes a determined fight for both, this country is headed for an in-

Washington, Mar. 14—America's first major aid to Britain will be designed to help foil Germany's "starve England" campaign, it was reported today as Congressional action was rushed on the $7,000,000,000 lease-lend appropriation.

Some members of Congress, who heard cabinet and army officers appeal for early approval of the aid funds, gained the impression that Chancellor Hitler's threatened invasion of Britain may be postponed.

The No. 1 threat facing the British, some members asserted after the hearings, is the destruction of shipping by Germany's submarines and long range bombers.

To combat this menace, American aid, it was predicted, will include bombers which can patrol sea lanes and protect merchant vessels, and light ships for hunting down submarines. Food also will be shipped, it was said.

The House Appropriations Deficiency Committee, which is considering the funds bill, called William S. Knudsen, OPM chief, budget director Smith and naval and army officers for testimony.

Hearings are scheduled to close today. The bill will be thrust before the House on next Tuesday.

15 Hollanders Put To Death

Amsterdam, Mar. 14—Fifteen Hollanders convicted of membership in a terrorist sabotage and espionage organization have been put to death by firing squads, the military governor of the German-occupied Netherlands announced today.

The 15 executed prisoners were among 18 defendants sentenced to death at a recent trial at The Hague. The remaining three had their sentences commuted to life imprisonment.

Yugoslavia Refuses To Let German Troops Enter

Geneva, Mar. 14—Negotiations between Germany and Yugoslavia have broken down because of the latter's flat refusal to permit entry of Nazi troops, the usual reliable newspaper Journal de Geneve reported today.

The same newspaper reported definitely that Turkey will intervene if Yugoslavia is attacked.

Liquor Dealers Object To Sunday Sales

Harrisburg, Mar. 14—Pennsylvania liquor dealers today were pledged to fight any legislation which would permit the sale of intoxicants on Sunday.

John P. Crane, chairman of the legislative committee of the Counties Retail Liquor Dealers' Association, said: "Generally, we believe that Pennsylvania does not want an open Sunday so far as liquor sales are concerned and accordingly we are not seeking any changes which would permit Sunday daytime sales."

RAF Bombers Again Attack Hamburg

London, Mar. 14—In the heaviest single attack the RAF has launched since the war began, British bombers pounded the German port of Hamburg last night for the second successive time within 24 hours, London authorities disclosed today.

An Air Ministry communique termed the newest assault on Hamburg successful, but from other sources it was revealed the attack was the most severe the RAF has yet unleashed.

It represented a continuation of the British "all-out" aerial offensive which began the previous night with stunning raids against Berlin, Hamburg and Bremen.

MAY "BOMBARD" CLASSROOM

HARRISBURG—(INS)—If medical science has its way, school children soon will be "bombarded" in the classroom. Delegates to the recent Pennsylvania Health Institute heard of a light ray, still in an experimental stage, which will kill the germs of contagious disease. The idea is to "bombard" a classroom to kill germs that cause colds and other nose and throat diseases.

"HOG SLAPPIN'" PRAISED

OMAHA, Neb. — (INS) — There's nothing like Al Scott's "hog slapper" when it comes to humane and money-saving devices. Scott, president of the Scott-Omaha Tent and Awning Company, invented the "slapper" 25 years ago as an instrument with which to whack obstinate hogs without hurting them. It consists of multiple strips of canvas attached to a handle and when flailed on a hog's back makes sharp, cracking noises that effectively spur the animal to action.

U. S. farmers reported the value of farm implements and machinery in the 1940 Census as $3,059,266,327, compared with $3,301,654,000 in 1930.

Guest Speakers Address
Bi-County Council Group

The monthly meeting of Montgomery Bucks Bi-County Council of American Legion Auxiliaries was held in the War Memorial Building, Glenside, yesterday, with Mrs. Melvin James, Ambassador, presiding.

Ray Hemmerly introduced the guest speakers, one being Leon Walt, past Ninth District commander, and now national child welfare chairman of the American Legion. Mr. Walt said: "We can protect our America by leading our boys and girls in the right direction. We should know their companions."

Mrs. A. W. Miller, department child welfare chairman, New Cumberland, told how money is spent to help boys and girls leaving high school in different parts of the state, helping them to get started on the right road to make a good living, therefore making good American citizens. She told of a veteran's girl who had a desire to attend school, but owing to the conditions at home was not able to, as there were five other children to be cared for, and the father had died. The mother had the care of the family, "$50 was forwarded to the girl by the department chairman of welfare for one year, and in that year the girl earned a scholarship covering three years so she could finish her course."

Mrs. Haldeman, Willow Grove, gave a talk on Americanism and recited a verse "Keep only Americans on guard tonight."

Mrs. J. Meely, of Philadelphia, sub-chairman of publicity, told that books and magazines are needed for the C. C. C. and training camps.

Mrs. C. M. Ott, Philadelphia, the Eastern director, presented membership awards to several units.

Mrs. Benjamin Lesseig, Pan-American sub chairman, in the absence of Mrs. J. Magill, Fort Washington, the chairman, introduced Thomas Newlands, a student at the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, who is a native of Brazil. He spoke of his home land, and told of the changes in Brazil during the last few years.

Two school girls, both daughters of Legionnaires, gave piano and vocal selections. A tasty luncheon was served.

Those attending from Bristol Auxiliary: Mrs. Arthur Zug, president; Mrs. Benjamin Lesseig, Mrs. H. H. Dettmer, Mrs. R. B. Downing, Mrs. Elizabeth Delker, Mrs. Robert Clark, Sr., and Mrs. Robert Clark, Jr.

Today's Quiet Moment

(By Howard L. Zepp, Th. M.)

Heavenly Father, Thou knowest the purposive endeavors of Thy children. Make us aware that what really matters, what counts in actual living is to have the mind of Christ. Grant us the ability to think His thoughts concerning possessions, comforts, reputation, success, generosity, tolerance and service. Since it is otherwise futile to sing of our love to Thee, give us courage to act upon Thy thoughts, to live them. Amen.

SHOPPING TIPS FOR BUDGETEERS

(Sherlock Holmes and Watson combined would be hard put to do any better snooping about town, for sales values, than this expert shopper for out of town women. This week she advises that the readers of her column go in for a perfect orgy of sales buying for the sake of economy!)

When we find a good shop throwing a good will sale during a whole week named for itself—such as "Spring Snellenburg Week," which began Wednesday, March 12th, it's time to go to town!

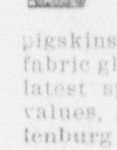

Take my word for it, the values are tops, and I know. If you wish to drive, this shop makes parking a reasonably priced pleasure. Drive to Snellenburg's new Clover St. door for "carriage trade," and an attendant, from the finest garage in town a few feet away, cares for your car. A single Snellenburg sales check presented with your garage coupon makes the small price a bargain! Your purchases are delivered to the Clover St. door.

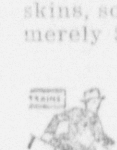

If your young men who wish to step out with assurance will visit Snellenburg's third floor Boys' Clothing and Prep Clothes Dept., they'll come upon treasure! Throughout the dept. there are other fine values, but I call particular attention to student suits which even at the regular price of $19.95 to $21.50 are "buds," but which can now be had for even less, $17.95. Included are fine tweeds, chevrons, cassimers, etc., and in the interesting colors younger men are now demanding. Look, too, at the reversible coats for students and boys, $11.95 values but now $9.50. One side is wool and the reverse is the cotton gabardine considered a "must" by smarties.

Fresh gloves give one as much lift as a new hat. Snellenburgs proudly present $1.98 and $2.98 values for $1.69—domestic leathers, capeskins, suedes, pigskins, etc. Furthermore, good fabric gloves of sueded rayon in the latest spring colors, $1 to $1.50 values, are but 55c during "Snellenburg Week." Doe finished lamb-skins, some four button length, are merely $1.09. Grand buys, all.

Buy luggage while the selection is good, before the travel season really starts. Snellenburg's 1st fl. luggage dept. has a grand zipper grip (known as "Zip-O-Grip") for $4.95 instead of its regular price of $7.95. It's a "Snellenburg Week" triumph. Top grain seal, sturdy and famous for wear, double zippered, 18 inch size, initials in gold at no extra cost! See, too, the attractive week-end or overnight case at $3.45 instead of $4.95. Fashioned of woven stripe canvas leather bound. Excellent, both.

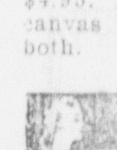

No jewel the world over is so flattering to women of any age as pearls. The modern simulated pearls are as glowingly complimentary as a queen's matched string.

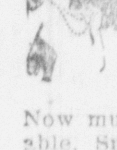

Now multiple strands are fashionable. Snellenburg Week is responsible for lovely two, three, four or five strand necklaces for $2.59 instead of $4.95. They are enriched by elaborate rhinestone clasps. Pearls can be worn with sweaters or the most extreme evening gown. At this reduced price even women with most modest wardrobes can afford the lovely luxury.

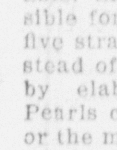

A piano in the house binds a family together! It is a common interest, something mutually enjoyed. If two members can play, then there can be that magic harmonizer of two personalities—the duct. Family song fests are long remembered. Snellenburgs are now offering a Marvin Spinet at a special price of only $177.50 instead of $195. You can get this spinet piano on delightfully easy terms. Is it someone's birthday or is the family seeking too much outside amusement? Here's your chance! Month-proof, felt, reinforced hammers, sweet tone!

ROHM & HAAS TEAM REGAINS THE CHAMPIONSHIP OF BRISTOL BASKETBALL LEAGUE; DEFEATS MANHATTAN FIVE

Showing a complete reversal of its form of last week, the Rohm and Haas basketball team regained the championship of the Bristol Basketball League which it lost in 1939 by defeating the Manhattan Soap A. A. by a last quarter spurt. Final score was: Rohm and Haas, 52; Manhattan, 45.

Close to 600 basketball devotees crowded every inch of available space in the Italian Mutual Aid hall and were treated to one of the best championship games played in the history of the local circuit. The balcony, sides, and corridors were filled to capacity and room had to be made on the stage to accommodate the spectators.

The fans were kept on the edge of the seats throughout the entire game as both clubs did their scoring in streaks. Many times the lead changed hands. Occasionally one club would pile as high a lead as six points but this meant nothing as the opposing team would go on a streak and so deadlock the score.

The game remained thus until the midway of the final session when the chemical workers pulled away from a 44-42 lead and increased it to a proportion which was never reached by the tiring Manhattan team.

Two players were directly responsible for the Manhattan defeat, Ralph Cahall and "Reds" Gallagher who scored 37 of their team's points. Gallagher made fifteen points the first half while Cahall accounted for 13 points in the second half before leaving the game because of the personal foul rule. For their night's total, Cahall had 18 and Gallagher, 19. Both these players were the recipients of many passes and most of their shots were from under the net.

"Punkie" Zeffries, Nick Hufnell, and Snyder were outstanding in the Manhattan defeat. Zeffries was high scorer with fifteen points, although it was the shooting of "Lanky" Snyder which kept the soap-makers in the tilt during the second half as he matched Cahall point for point. The soapmen had many opportunities in the final session but were missing their shots. A few of Snyder's throws merely rolled around the rim and then dropped on the outside for just a plain miss. This happened on three consecutive tries in the last few minutes and if any of them dropped in the score may have been tighter.

The winners played in better co-operation and co-ordination than they did all season and only at times did their reckless shooting prevail.

The first quarter of the contest saw the soap-workers jump into a big lead which gradually dwindled as the period came to a close. Joe Snyder started it with a foul but Zeffries made a two-shot foul on W. Gallagher who dropped both throws to make the score 2-1. Smith again fouled Snyder and he deadlocked the score. A pass Snyder to Zeffries under the net was successful and Manhattan took a 4-2 lead, this being increased to 6-2 on a foul shot by Zeffries. When Cahall fouled Zeffries, the score against mounted to 6-2. Gallagher missed a foul but Cahall, standing on the side, retrieved the ball and shot it in for a goal. W. Gallagher was fouled while scoring and he converted for a three-point goal and for the first time, Rohm and Haas went into the lead, 7-6. The lead was short-lived, however, for Hufnell sank in a long one and when J. Gallagher did the same, the Manhattaners possessed a 10-7 edge. On passes from Hufnell and Gallagher, Zeffries twice scored double-doubles to make the count, 14-7. A last minute rally paid big dividends for the chemical mixers as Gouza made a foul and W. Gallagher shot one in from the side. Hufnell made a free shot for Manhattan as the quarter ended with the score 15-10 in favor of Manhattan.

Scoring from the side by Gallagher and a long throw by Roe gave the Maple Beach team four points at the start of the second quarter and when Cahall dribbled the entire length of the floor to score unmolested, the Coleman took the lead again, 16-15. Kelly was detected fouling Gallagher who made good. On a double-foul, both Hufnell and Cahall dropped their throws into the cords. W. Gallagher intercepted a pass and took one step to shoot in a two-pointer, making the count, 20-16. A pass, Zeffries to Kelly, followed by another, Zeffries to Hufnell, meant a pair of goals for Manhattan and the score was tied at 20-20. Scoring an over-the-head shot, Zeffries put Manhattan ahead. Hufnell got a pair of fouls to make it 24-20. W. Gallagher made a foul and when Smith and W. Gallagher looped in long field goals, Rohm and Haas took the lead at the half-time whistle, 25-24.

Receiving a pass from Zeffries, Snyder pivoted to score and followed this with a side shot to make the count, 28-25. Roe scored a sleeper under the basket but Hufnell retaliated with a long shot and the count was 30-27. Vanzant scored for Rohm and Haas but Mulligan got it back for Manhattan. When Zeffries passed to Snyder for a goal, the score was 34-29. Cahall made a foul and followed with a field goal on a pass from Cole. Snyder was fouled by Cole and converted to bring the score to 35-32. Cahall followed a missed shot and scored from the side. Zeffries made a foul but Cahall deadlocked the score with an under-the-basketball shot. Mulligan to Snyder netted a goal for Manhattan but Joe Roe tied the score at the end of the third quarter, 38-38.

Cahall missed a foul but followed it up and scored. W. Gallagher scored from side court and Joe Roe made it three in a row with a long heave. Score now was 44-38. Zeffries got one back for Manhattan and after breathing spell followed with an arching goal from the side, count then being, 44-42. Cahall on passes from Cole and Vanzant scored twice for Rohm and Haas and the count was 48-42. Gallagher and Hufnell added three points for Manhattan with a foul and field goal, respectively. But W. Gallagher and Joe Roe put the finishing touches with Kenyon field goals as the final count registered.

LEVY, BIG MAN OF MAT, TO APPEAR AT ARENA

TRENTON, N. J., Mar. 14—The biggest man ever to set foot on a wrestling mat is slated to appear as the feature attraction at the Arena tonight. He is Martin Levy, 640 pounds of muscle and flesh and a wrecker of box office records par excellence. Levy has been the source of more sports news reels and sporting columns than any other wrestler of recent vintage and his coming here is the outstanding event of a season packed with box-office names.

The 640-pound mammoth has been the target of every State Athletic Commission medical investigation who find it hard to believe that a man of huge proportions can cope with the men weighing between 200 and 300 pounds. However, none can find fault with the man's physical apparatus and they had on other alternative than to grant him a license. The "Blimp" prances around the ring with the speed of a 200-pounder and it is sensational to watch him in action. The biggest possible man was selected to oppose the "Blimp," Benny Rosen, the now dwarfed Jewish giant, will be Martin's foe and this pair should prove tops.

Four other outstanding contests are also carded. The feature special attraction will bring together two of the finest contestants ever to appear here. They are Bobby Bruns, classy international champion and the newest idol of local fandom, facing the world's ugliest wrestler, the Swedish Angel. This Lou would be a windup in any club but it will play second fiddle to the Levy-Rosen fracas. The Italian Angel will face Otto VonSchacht, the villainous Milwaukee brewer, who caused a near-riot last Friday. The free-for-all will be on tap and Jack Claybourne, sensational South African, will make his first appearance in this type of mat entertainment. His foes will be Count Carl Von Zappe, the eccentric Austrian; Felix Slovickowski, 260-pound Pole; and Michele Leone, the clever Italian. Hans Schwarz, Brooklyn ice-man, and Rufus Jones, head-cracking Jamaican, will open the show at 8.30 p. m.

CURTISS-WRIGHT 21B

It can climb a mile, almost straight up, in 60 seconds—can the Curtiss Wright 21B interceptor, three silhouette views of which appear above. Small yet formidable, the 21B symbolizes the amazing range of military aircraft now being produced in the United States—from light trainers to the world's biggest bombers. Note in these sketches the "teardrop" design—rounded nose and sharp slope toward the tail structure—and the "overhang" on the lower side of the engine cowl, which are characteristic of the 21B, a ship designed primarily to intercept invading bombers quickly.
